

23. Travel Back in Time

The current special at National Travel Services is a trip to Egypt. You start at the Great Pyramid and the Sphinx at Giza. They are both in southern Egypt. Then it's on to the Hall of Kings and the famous tomb of King Tut. In between, you'll learn about life in ancient Egypt and in other middle eastern lands. You'll learn of the many pharaohs and the pharaohs secrets. You'll see the things they hoped to take with they after they died. You'll see statues the Egyptians built to honor birds as their favorite animals. You'll also learn how difficult it was to build those pyramids. The tour group leaves on August 7, 2000 so mark your calendar. By your tickets for the better organized trip you'll ever have! Air travel from New York, New York and back is included.
